

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Painter Robert Bozek

Biography

Robert (Captain Bob) Bozek, an artist born and raised in New York, maintains a home as well as a studio here in Cape Coral, Florida. His varied paintings that range in subject from lighthouses and seascapes all the way to abstracts have been widely exhibited and sold throughout the Hamptons of NY. Bozek has shown his artwork at the Hampton Bays Library, Sag Harbor Art Fair and Harbor Festival, the Olish Farms Fair (held 3 times per year in Eastport, NY), the East Quogue Street Fair plus numerous other NY art festivals held in Montauk, Oceanside, Hicksville, and Cutchogue. He also has an upcoming exhibit at the Westhampton Beach Library.

Over his 90-year lifetime, Robert Bozek worked as a Layout Manager for Newsday for 43 years and as a licensed boat captain holding a Masters 100-ton rating. All the while, his interest in painting has persisted ever since he first began studying Art at the tender age of 12. Bob was the first Art Major in his high school, earning him the designation of “Oceanside’s Rembrandt” in his graduation year book.
